

ANGLEN ARTISRY

ORIGINALS + FINE ART PRINTS FOR RESIDENTIAL & COMMERCIAL SPACES

ARTIST OVERVIEW

Valerie Anglen creates original works and commissioned pieces designed for both residential and commercial interiors. Her large-scale paintings on boxed canvas are developed for clean, frame-free presentation, bringing a strong, grounded visual presence while blending timeless subject matter with refined texture and scale.

NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENTS

Valerie Anglen was awarded a California Arts Council grant through KDACC to lead a large-scale painting initiative serving over 6,000 elementary students in one of the region’s most under-resourced school districts. She provided instruction, materials, and curated live exhibitions at each school, demonstrating the power of painting to build confidence and creativity.

Building on this work, Valerie developed ArtWorks, a free, community-based program delivering high-quality painting instruction to underserved students, continuing her commitment to accessible, impactful arts education.

In addition to her work as an artist and educator, Valerie has an accomplished career in commercial design, contributing to 15 multimillion-dollar school projects within the largest high school district in California.

FAMILY LEGACY

ROBERT BUCKINGHAM

1930 – 2025

Professional painter and commissioned artist. Robert established the family's foundation in original fine art, earning recognition for his award-winning work and lifelong commitment to craftsmanship and creative excellence.

VALERIE ANGLLEN

BORN 1959

Daughter of Robert Buckingham and professional painter and commissioned artist. Valerie continues the legacy through original works and large-scale commissions, expanding the family tradition into both fine art and community impact.

ADONIAH & KOSTA HRONIS

ADONIAH – BORN 2014

KOSTA – BORN 2016
